GUEST MINISTRY

Seventy Judy Hubbard

Judy loves God, Jesus and the vision of Zion. She was blessed to grow up in Kirkwood, MO in a loving RLDS church family. She attended Graceland College, where she met her husband, Gene Hubbard. They married and had four beautiful children, 13 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

In 1998, God called Judy to come “learn of His ways” by starting a street ministry in Columbia Missouri’s Public Housing.

For 10 years she learned about the precious people, loved by God. She worked among and learned from those in poverty and suffering. Judy and Glenn Cobbins Sr. have been working together for 21 years, helping and loving people physically and spiritually to become inspired by the equality and worth of all persons to God and to one another.

For the next 15 years, the Imani Mission Center was sponsored by Community of Christ. The inner-city mission and Destiny of H.O.P.E. were blessed to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the imprisoned, bring healing to the sick and addicted and teach the people about God, Jesus and Zion!

Judy is anxious to come and share her testimony of God’s love and care for all persons.
